RG-8.11 - Civic Elections and Census Enumeration Finding Aid

How to use this finding aid

Researchers will need to know name, address, polling district, and a year in order to find information on an individual or family in most of these records.

Step 1 – Review the list of Civic Elections and Census Enumeration Records in this finding aid to see the types of records we have for each year.

Step 2 – Locate the address of the person you are looking for. If you do not have this information, consult the Henderson's Directory in the reference room for the year in question.

Step 3 – Identify the polling district. Early records (1895 - 1916) are generally available alphabetically. Records from subsequent years are divided into polling districts. To identify the polling district, consult subseries 3.

Step 4 – Provide the year, polling division, and box number(s) to the reference archivist, who will retrieve the records you seek.

Terminology

An ELECTOR of VOTER was defined as a person entitled to vote at municipal and school elections in the City of Edmonton.

A BURGESS was defined as an elector who was "such in respect of freehold property."

An OWNER included any person who had any right, title or estate whatever or interest in land in the city other than that of a mere occupant.

OCCUPIER or OCCUPANT meant any person who occupied any land in the city under any title whatsoever.

RESIDENT meant a person having his fixed or permanent residence within the city.

PERSON included a corporation or partnership.

PROOF are documents handwritten by the canvassers employed by the City to compile census and voter information, thus it is often in rough form and subject to corrections.

PUBLISHED RESULTS are those lists that were available at the polling stations and were, in effect, the final draft at election time.

REFERRED BYLAW meant a bylaw referred to the vote of the burgesses and assented to by them.
